Roundabout Clarkdale

While you can’t get full service gas there anymore, Clarkdale Classic Station is still open to assist with your general automotive needs for all makes and models, foreign and domestic.

Owned and operated by Mike Hensley since 1989, the station provides expert mechanical services, tires and more. Open Monday through Friday, call 639-0432 to make an appointment.

And watch for changes to this location as Austin Hensley, Mike’s son, sets up his artist studio in one of the bays.

ELECTION NEWS

If you wish to vote in the August 30th, Primary Election, you MUST be registered in one of the Democratic, Green or Republican parties (State recognized parties). If you don’t wish to change your party for the primary election on August 30th, and you want to vote only in the Local Clarkdale election, you can choose to receive a Non-Partisan Town Ballot.

A new registration form is required when you change your name, residential address or party affiliation which must be returned to the Yavapai County Recorder’s Office by July 16, 2016, in order to receive a ballot by mail.

The local Town of Clarkdale elections (non-partisan) will have the following items on the ballot:

- One Four-Year Mayoral Term – Candidate: Doug Von Gausig
- Two Four-Year Councilmember Terms – Candidates: Scott Buckley and Richard Dehnert
- Proposition 434 - Permanent Base Adjustment

Remember, local races are determined in the Primary, so make sure you get your ballot and VOTE! For more Election related News, visit the County website at: www.yavapai.us/electionsvr/ or Clarkdale’s website at www.clarkdale.az.gov.
