Traffic

Collisions continue to be dramatically higher for the first half of the year compared to 2011. Increased traffic enforcement in May and June should soon have a positive effect on safety on our streets.

Crime

Crimes against persons are still zero for 2012 and burglary continues to be about a third of last years first half. However, this is balanced by a doubling in theft reports.

Domestic violence is also down about one-third over the same six months. Much of the reduction in animal enforcement for 2012 is related to the animal control officer being half-time in 2012 and full time for the first six months of 2011, and his unavailability during most of April due to an injury on duty as a firefighter.
