Free Concert in Clarkdale Town Park

Prepare to bang your head to the hard-metallic rock stylings of Headless Charlie on June 20, 2009 from 6-8pm at the Clarkdale Town Park Gazebo. This concert is part of the 2009 Concerts in the Park series presented by Clarkdale Parks and Recreation.

Headless Charlie fuses the best aspects of rock, progressive, and metal elements into a symphonic spectacle for the senses. Their music is alternately erotic and powerful, melodic and crunchy.

Headless Charlie showcases the talents of some of the area's best and most accomplished musicians, including Steve Botterweg on bass, who can also be heard drumming for Major Lingo, the incomparable Roy Sandoval on guitar, and John Westcott on drums. Keith Martin rounds out the group with amazing vocals that channel the spirits of souls from the past and future.

The park is located in the center of the town's historic district on Main Street, between 9th and 10th Streets. There is a playground for the kids to enjoy while the adults listen and dance to the music. Vendors will be on site. There is a 50/50 raffle which all proceeds benefit the Concerts in the Park.

Remember to bring your own seating and that alcoholic beverages are not permitted in the park. Vending spaces are available and can be arranged by contacting Community Services at (928) 639-2441. For additional information please contact Clarkdale Parks and Recreation at (928) 639-2490 or by email: dawn.norman@clarkdale.az.gov.
