Clark Memorial Library hosts Presentation on the Talking Book Library

On Wednesday, February 27th, at 10am, the Clark Memorial Library will be holding a community presentation on the Talking Book Library in the Ladies Lounge of the Clark Memorial Clubhouse at 19 N. Ninth Street, Clarkdale.

The Talking Book Library is a part of the Arizona State Library, a Division of the Secretary State. The Talking Book Library will be discussing their FREE audio listening service along with other materials available through the library for those who find it difficult to read standard print because of visual impairment or physical disability. All materials, including the provided player, are at no cost to the user. The Talking Book Library serves all age groups and reading levels.

Please join the Clark Memorial Library for this one hour presentation to learn more on how to qualify and acquire materials. If you are not able to attend and would like more information on the Talking Book Library, please contact Margie Hardie at 928-639-2441, email: margie.hardie@clarkdale.az.gov or visit: www.azlibrary.gov/braille/index.aspx.
