Attention- Clarkdale invites public to Water 101 meeting on April 30th

Water 101: What are the water resources for the Town of Clarkdale and how should we use and protect them?

The Town of Clarkdale in collaboration with the Water Resources Research Center of the University of Arizona and Lacher Hydrological Consulting invite the public to attend the first in a series of water education meetings on April 30, 2013 from 5:30 – 7:00 p.m. at the Clark Memorial Clubhouse in the Men's Lounge at 19 N. Ninth Street, Clarkdale, AZ.

The goal of this meeting is to provide interested citizens with an introduction to the Sustainable Clarkdale initiative, Clarkdale's water resources and the tools we can use to understand them. The overall theme for this meeting will be: "Can we live within our means?"

Highlights from the agenda topics are as follows:

1. Welcome and introductions
2. Background on Sustainable Clarkdale Initiative and Water Resource Management Program
3. Water Demands and Supplies in the Verde Valley and Town of Clarkdale
4. Tools to understand our water resources
5. Questions, comments and concerns

Questions may be directed to the Community Development Department at (928) 639-2500.

Clarkdale, AZ
