“A River Runs Thru Us” at Clark Memorial Library

If you're looking for something to do with your family and guests over the holiday break, stop in at the Clark Memorial Library to view “A River Runs Thru Us”. The exhibit features works of art inspired by a three day trip on our own Verde River. The results are spectacular, come out and see this unique show.

A River Runs Thru Us will be on display through January 3rd and can be viewed during library hours: 8:00am-5:30pm, Monday thru Thursday, and 8:00am -12:00pm on Friday. The library will close at noon on December 24th and be closed on December 25th and January 1st.

The original art will be sold in an online auction, along with sales of posters, prints, calendars and greeting cards to fund ongoing education, and conservation of the valuable and precious habitat of the Verde River. This is the fourth stop of the travelling art exhibit. The exhibition journey will continue thru April of 2014, displaying at various venues along the watershed.

For a list of artists and samples of their work and the exhibition/event calendar, visit the website: www.VerdeArtistChallenge.org and their Facebook Page <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Verde-Artist-Challenge>.
