Clarkdale's Art in Public Places Showcases Sedona Camera Club

The Sedona Camera Club is currently exhibiting their work at the Clark Memorial Library throughout the month of April. A variety of photographic mediums is on display and can be viewed Monday-Thursday 1pm-5:30pm and Friday 8am-12pm. The exhibition includes photographs captured by members Elaine Blevin, Dave Ellison, John Gafford, Isabelle Lacey and Barney Tumey and includes a variety of subject matter ranging from landscapes, animals and individuals.

The Sedona Camera Club has been meeting, learning and enjoying photography continuously since 1952. Their mission is to promote interest in photography and assist members in developing photographic skills from beginners to advanced. The club offers a variety of opportunities including club trips and events, workshops and competition. For more information on the Sedona Camera Club visit their website: www.sedonacameraclub.com.

The Art in Public Places exhibit may be viewed at Clark Memorial Library, 39 N. Ninth St., Clarkdale.
