Criminal Damage and Vehicle Burglaries in Clarkdale

Early Sunday morning, a juvenile crime spree resulted in numerous criminal damage and burglary calls throughout Clarkdale and Cottonwood. Around 28 vehicles have had tires slashed, 20 in Clarkdale alone. Some victims had multiple vehicles damaged. The suspects took numerous items in the car burglaries such as purses, cell phones, keys, and stereos.

Five of the six juveniles have been arrested and transported to the Juvenile Detention Facility in Prescott. The suspects have been charged with numerous felonies.

Clarkdale Police officers are still attempting to determine the value of the damaged items. Based on the investigation so far, the damage may be thousands of dollars. Some of the damage may not have yet been discovered by victims.

Please contact Clarkdale Police Department if you discover you may have been a victim of this crime.
