Free Hip Hop/Rap and Raggae Concert at the Clarkdale Park Gazebo

Calling all B-Boys, Hip Hop dancers and Dread Lock swingers...on October 11th LEL Brothas and The Chromatics will perform the final concert in Clarkdale's free Concerts in the Park. The event begins at 5:30 p.m. with a special performance by Light Vibe Dance Troupe. At 5:45 p.m., renowned dance instructor, Eric Aglia will offer a free 15 minute hip hop dance lesson to prepare for the evening. Eric has over 17 years of dancing experience and has instructed at over 100 studios throughout Arizona and California. He is currently LEL Brothas choreographer whose expertise and practical know how catapults the LEL Brothas stage shows to that of perfection.

The concert will kick off with LEL Brothas who is comprised of DJ Clone and LBC. DJ Clone grew up in San Diego running the streets with Hip Hop Crews. He soon gained a reputation as a highly sought after DJ, lyricist and dancer. He performs at the hottest nightclubs and venues in Arizona and San Diego. LBC, originally from Long Beach, was forced to face at a young age the hard reality of growing up on the streets. LBC used that anger and pain to fuel his desire to rise to greatness and fulfill his destiny as not only a rapper but also as an entertainer. LBC is revered by many as a lyrical disease consuming everything in his path.

The LEL Brothas have been feverishly working on their new album, titled Epidemic, which includes the work of well-known producer, Wade Martin, as well as talented beat makers, Hi-Fly Beats and Sinima Beats. DJ Clone stated, "It's the LEL Republic taking the nation state by state!" The Epidemic is highly awaited and is slated to drop this month.

HeadStop Productions recording artists: The Chromatics will close the final concert of the season. The Chromatics are out of Camp Verde, Arizona. Journey Roots...the expanding conscious art that The Chromatics have dubbed their sound. They use their music to expand the subconscious of our brothers & sisters. The sound is a cleansing vibration of the soul.
