Free Rap/Hip Hop Concert in Clarkdale Park

On Saturday, August 11th, Clarkdale Parks and Recreation is excited to present the rap/hip-hop crew Of One Mind. The group is based out of San Diego, California and includes four members, two of which grew up in the area and graduated from Mingus Union High School. Emcee and percussionist Collins Lovett also known as “Cwok” graduated from MUHS in 1997 along with “DJ Theory” Nathaniel Hardie who is a 2000 graduate. Performing on the drums and vocals will be Danny Budden aka “Nuze” and Ian Crosby aka “Throppo”.

Of One Mind’s music is politically driven and has a beat that is sure to make you bounce. Alongside them will be the break dance crew “Anit” featuring Evan Rumble performing break dancing and live art throughout the evening.

So mark your calendar for Saturday, August 11th, to make sure that you do not miss out on this event. The concert is 6 p.m. – 8 p.m. and is free to the public. The park is located in the center of the town’s historic district on Main Street, between 9th and 10th Streets. There is a 50/50 raffle which all proceeds benefit the Town of Clarkdale Parks and Recreation. Remember to bring your own seating and that alcoholic beverages are not permitted in the park. If you would like additional information contact Dawn Norman, Parks and Recreation, at 643-9591.
